Claims 161 and 163 insert the confusing added limitation "[-]" in line 6. If the purpose of this amendment is to delete the notation '-', double brackets should be use. If the purpose is to add the notation it should be underlined. Claim 161 inserts the new notation '-' at line 3 in between the limitations 'bacterial cells' in what appears to be an attempt to add/indicate a space. Similarly, claim 164 inserts the new notation '-' at lines 3 and 8 of the claim. However, the space was present at the indicated sites in the immediate prior compliant version.
